PROJECTS

Liver Patient Analysis: Analyzed a medical dataset to identify patients with liver disease. Applied preprocessing techniques, handled missing values and trained models using Random Forest and Logistic Regression. Evaluated model performance using appropriate classification metrics to predict liver disease.

Transportation Management System (TMS): Developed a TMS using MongoDB, React.js, Express.js, and Node.js to streamline transport operations and vehicle management. Implemented booking management with secure authentication using JWT tokens and bcrypt. Built RESTful APIs for efficient frontend-backend communication and integrated MongoDB for managing transport, booking and user data.
